

RESUME:

Daniel A. Seeger has an educational background in the natural sciences (physics) and in philosophy, and has extensive work experience in the administration of not-for-profit organizations. He is now retired.

Education:

City University of New York (Queens College): Bachelor of Science in Physics

Course work included nuclear physics and quantum mechanics, electricity and magnetism, cosmology, earth science, optics, sound, and thermodynamics.

City University of New York (Hunter College)

Post graduate work in philosophy, specializing in Thomas Aquinas and Jacques Maritain.

Work Experience:

Executive Director, American Friends Service Committee, New York Metropolitan Regional Office.

Supervised staff of approximately 30 people engaged in programs of public education and social change activism. Responsible for overseeing the development of programs advancing Friends' perspectives on war and peace, and programs addressing the needs of inner city youth, victims of domestic violence, Haitian and Cambodian immigrants, the families of prisoners, and other at-risk groups. Responsible for developing financial support through government and foundation grants and from individual donors. Served for approximately 29 years.

Executive Director, Pendle Hill, Wallingford, Pennsylvania.

Provided leadership for this Quaker center for study and contemplation. Founded by Friends in 1930, the center serves a world-wide constituency of people from all faiths and backgrounds with programs of education and spiritual development and renewal. In addition to a curriculum of year-long residential study, the center provides week-long and weekend courses, conferences and retreats. It is also a publishing house which makes available books and pamphlets on spiritual themes. Supervised a diverse staff of educators, food service providers, grounds keepers, editors, fund raisers, and building maintenance workers. Provided staff support to the Board of Directors. Served for nine years. Retired in 2000 C.E. Agreed to take on four post-retirement temporary assignments, including the two listed below.

Interim Regional Director, American Friends Service Committee, Pacific Mountain Regional Office.

Provided leadership to an organization in transition, restoring administrative systems, strengthening the board of directors, and balancing the budget, Served in 2004-2005.

Interim General Secretary, American Friends Service Committee.

Provided transitional leadership for an organization with staff in 15 countries and 35 cities and towns in the United States. Served for six months.

Job Related Travel:

Philippines, Kenya, Zimbabwe, Tanzania, Zambia, South Africa, Japan, Guatemala, Mexico, Wales, England, Canada, Belgium, most of the 48 contiguous states of the USA. Other non-professional travel: France, Italy, Spain, Greece, Russia, Finland, Sweden.

Volunteer Service:

Friends Seminary, a K-12 school serving students in Manhattan. Chairperson, governing board.

Friends World Committee for Consultation, global umbrella group for the Religious Society of Friends. Chairperson, board providing oversight between triennials. Presiding Clerk (chairperson), 1991 World Conference in Kenya.

American Friends Service Committee, member of Board of Directors.

Lumberton Township: Chairman of the Lumberton Township Planning Board, Chairman of the Lumberton Township Environmental Commission, member of the Lumberton Township Historic Architecture Review Committee.

Moorestown Friends School. Member of the Board of Trustees.

Friends Center Corporation, owner/operator of buildings housing the National Offices of the American Friends Service Committee, the Central Philadelphia Monthly Meeting, and Philadelphia Yearly Meeting. Chairperson.

National Continuing Care Residents Association. President.

Pennsylvania Alliance of Retirement Community Residents. Vice-President.

Publications:

Pamphlets and articles published by the Friends World Committee for Consultation, Friends United Meeting, Pendle Hill, the Quaker Universalist Fellowship, Quaker Religious Thought, Friends Journal, and Quaker Life.